Enjoy an early summer evening in Weggis on the lake with an aperitif and lively music.

Franz Schwarz gives a concert in a class of its own. He plays old and new melodies on his special accordion. He combines other instruments so that the whole thing sounds like an orchestra. Be it the accordion itself with its variety of different sound registers, or a pan flute accompanied by strings, the saxophone with brass voices, country melodies with guitar sounds, a piano supported by a symphony orchestra or Oberkrainer melodies with two-part clarinet and trumpet accompaniment. For Franz Schwarz, variety has no limits.
