'Friday rounds' opening concert

Estelle Lustenberger, piano and Myrtha Spahr, violin will play for you.

Concert in memory of the great violinist and composer Fritz Kreisler, who is celebrating his 150th birthday this year. You will hear some of his wonderful compositions, in which he skillfully combines classical music with Viennese salon music. You will also hear two famous works by Bach and Mozart, which Kreisler regularly played in his concerts. A varied program awaits you.
