Theater Weggis presents: 'Pension at the limit'

Comedy in three acts by Claudia Gysel (in Swiss dialect) Adapted and directed by Christian Wanner and Patricia Burkhalter, Breuninger Theaterverlag, Aarau

Herbert and Beatrice are newlyweds. But instead of enjoying their honeymoon, Aunt Flora suddenly appears on their doorstep. Almost at the same time, Herbert's boss, police inspector Killing, appears and reports a bank robbery in which a million dollars has been stolen and the perpetrator is said to be nearby. When Herbert finds heaps of banknotes in Aunt Flora's red suitcase, the case is clear to him. For Beatrice's sake, however, he refrains from pressing charges and, in desperation, puts his friend Ruedi - disguised as a robber - forward instead. Then the real robber turns up..... One mix-up follows another.
