Rock classics at their best

A crazy end to the year with SONGS UNDER GROUND

The trio around Mark Waldispühl, John Wolf Brennan and Tony Majdalani moves with ease in the most diverse styles between rock, pop, blues, funk and world music. Crazy, but true: a summit meeting with rock classics at their best - completely different and yet familiar, quiet chamber music, small line-up, reduced to the essentials. Hits by the Beatles, Bob Dylan, Coldplay, Queen, Jethro Tull, The Box Tops, Joe Cocker, Elton John, Stevie Winwood, Stevie Wonder, Jack Bruce, Tim Hardin... and of course Led Zeppelin! We round off the crazy end of the year with rock classics, without electronics and big amplification, but in all the finer "unplugged" cover versions. Groovy, hypnotic melodies, danceable rhythms, beguiling harmonies: these are the ingredients for a tasty cocktail - perfect for rocking out! Sunny melodies melt into each other; a cascade of soulful voices and sounds takes the audience from the beginnings of rock classics to the magnetic bliss of the Pilgrims album "in Trance it". The trio's performance exudes the magic of creating great music from half a century together.
